MORE NOVEMBER BRIDES

The Mearns-Chambers Wedding An Extremely Brilliant Function.

Marriage of Miss Aileen O'Donnell and Vicome de Sayre Postponed by the Former's Illness.

An unusually beautiful wedding was that of Miss Mary Beard Chambers, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beard Chambers, and Mr. William A. Mearns, which was solemnized at Calvary Baptist Church, at 6 o'clock last evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. H. Greene, D. D., pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, the marriage itself being solemnized by the bride's brother, Dr. Weston F. Chambers, of Salisbury Springs.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was radiant in ivory satin and pale blue. Her toilet was decorated with pearls, stars, and her flowers were white lilies arranged in a shower bouquet. Miss Louise Kaufmann, the maid of honor, wore a very lovely gown of white lace over white satin, and carried long-stemmed American Beauty roses.

The group of bridesmaids were Miss Mrs. Storer, Miss Alice Pilling, Miss Wood, Miss Helen Woodward, all of whom wore white silk skirts with lace and shoes of white tulle. Their flowers were carnations, tied with white satin ribbons. The groom's best man, Mr. John B. Mearns, of Philadelphia, the groom's father, and other relatives from Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Mearns will spend their honeymoon in Canada.

The residence of Mr. J. R. Singleton, on K street, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding yesterday afternoon. The bride being his daughter, Miss Mary Singleton, and the groom Mr. J. B. Mearns, of Philadelphia. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Linner, of Epiphany Church. Mr. E. B. Berry acted as best man.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms, chrysanthemums and violets, and the wedding party, together with other beautiful selections, were rendered by a string orchestra. The service was followed by a breakfast to the bride party and intimate friends, after which Mr. and Mrs. Mearns left for a wedding journey to New York. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends, after December 15, at No. 2118 Connecticut avenue.

The announcement is authorized that owing to the serious illness of Miss Aileen O'Donnell, her marriage to the Vicome de Sayre, which was to have been solemnized next Wednesday at St. Matthew's Church, has been indefinitely postponed. The vicome returned to Washington last night and is in constant attendance at the residence of Mrs. Aileen O'Donnell, on K street, where Miss O'Donnell makes her home. For a week or more the bride-elect has been under the care of her physician, who has just pronounced her to be suffering from typhoid fever.

Miss Fitz Gibbon, of New York, has arrived in Washington, and will spend the winter with her brother, Mr. J. K. Fitz Gibbon, at No. 1324 I street northwest.

The Chinese minister and Madame Wu will receive their friends informally this afternoon from 3 to 5.

Assistant Surgeon General John C. Boyd and Mrs. Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Caleb C. W. Boyd were among the Washingtonians at the wedding of Miss Grace Eyre and Mr. Richard Baker Taylor, which was solemnized in Baltimore on Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Grace Filkins, the young actress, who will appear here next week at the Columbia Theater in Charles Coghlan's comedy "The Royal Box," is well known in Washington social circles as the wife of Lieut. Commander Marx, U. S. N., to whom she was married about six months ago.

Though the Misses Mary and Laura Wheatley date their entrance into society from their appearance as attendant maids at the marriage of their sister, Miss Frances Wheatley, to Lieut. Burden, on Wednesday last, they will be formally presented to society in the early part of next month.

Miss Ella Warfield, of Texas, is the guest of Col. and Mrs. Payne, No. 2112 Massachusetts avenue.

Ladies' Day was inaugurated for the season yesterday at the Columbia Athletic clubhouse, which was decorated throughout in honor of the occasion with palm trees, potted plants and chrysanthemums. The members, as is their custom when entertaining their fair guests, placed the entire building at their disposal, and in addition to the routine amusements an attractive program was provided which included dancing to the inspiring music of the band. Athletic exercises were contributed by the members, the young girls, and the audience, and the evening closed with a splendid entertainment.

Special attractive features of the afternoon were the violin selections by the young virtuoso, Semeny, who is the pupil and protégé of the famous master of that name, and a trombone solo by Mr. Eiler. The amusement committee who arranged the evening's pleasure was composed of Dr. Exner, chairman; Mr. Louis Korn, Mr. Taylor Cronin, Mr. M. J. Brennan, and Mr. Adam Johnson. These ladies' days, which have always been such enjoyable incidents in the social history of the Columbia Athletic Club, will be continued throughout the winter, as usual, it having been long ago demonstrated that the ladies are as charmed to receive the hospitality of the club as the members are to enter it.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fellows have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Marion Maude to Mr. John Webster Davidson, which will occur at 6 o'clock at Saint Mark's Pro-cathedral, Wednesday, November 24, at 6 p. m.

The board of lady visitors of the Washington Hospital for Fomentals will give a donation tea this afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock to be given at the hospital, 1715 Fifteenth street. Mrs. Marvin C. Stone will have charge of the tea room. Mrs. Charles Dulin will dispense "sweets to the sweet" at the confectionery table, while Mrs. W. P. Kellogg will receive the donations as president of the lady visitors, assisted by the vice presidents. There are thirty-six ladies in the society, who will be on exhibition, and there will be also a musical program, which, however, it is stated on authority, will not be contributed by them.

The wife of Admiral Queen and Mrs. General Beall were among Mrs. McKinley's callers yesterday.

Hecht & Company—The only ladies', men's and children's exclusively ready-made clothing store in the city with the only credit system that is really liberal, free and equitable, and which is really an accommodation.

You may be prejudiced about buying clothing on easy payments. So much trickiness has been practiced by others, and is still practiced, that one cannot blame you. But we are certain that if you will investigate our liberal credit system, and our methods, that you will quickly dispel all prejudices, and ever afterward buy of us.

Your dollar never bought so much value as it will today.

We have never done such buying ourselves as we have done this week. It is the result of several days' scouring of the market, among makers overloaded and disheartened, that we put on sale today. Such values are further illustration of what an unequalled buying power and unlimited capital can do.

This is the greatest wrap sale

—yet, ladies. Nobody else has offered you the most exclusively stylish, high-class wraps, suits and waists for so little so early in the season. That we took advantage of the opportunity made by the weather of securing two makers' stocks for so little, places us more firmly than ever in your mind as leading in this line. Pick out what you wish and pay for it as you can—and choose at once, for it won't take fifteen salespeople long to hand out even so large a purchase.
